

Monday 5 October

With the power of our senses
May we recognise that
For those who cannot see
We need to reach out and be
Their support when needed
Allowing imagination to run free
So all can experience what
We have in our midst
And recognise the love of God

