

Saturday 3 October

Loving God

As we approach Harvest

We remember those who have little to eat

Nothing to bring in from the fields to feed families

Over the long months of winter

Remind us to think of our neighbour, wherever they are

To share what we have with those who have least

To petition governments to make decisions

That help those in need not hinder

And make this world a more just society for all

Amen

